Activities:

The Exploring the American Indian Boarding School Experience Power Point Presentation will go through an activity, review a historical timeline and a documentary before doing a deep dive into the Education at the Lutheran Indian Mission in Red Springs, WI from 1901-1920.

Procedures:

YouTube: Before hitting the play button on the YouTube video, be sure to point out where in the room the Kleenex will be just in case, they need one throughout the presentation. Inform attendees that the Mohican Flag song sung by Nanapowe Singers is the audio in the background and will be up for the first 44.58 seconds of the video.

Power Point: Before attendees enter room, open power point and slide one will play audio that is looped until you [CLICK]. After you click it will stop the audio and you can inform the attendees that the Mohican Flag song sung by Nanapowe Singers was the audio they heard. In addition, let the attendees know that the documentary and information within the presentation may evoke unexpected emotions and point out where in the room the Kleenex will be and that they are welcome to leave the room to practice self-care, if needed. Once you [CLICK] again it will start the Power Point which is automated and will transition from one slide to another without having to click.

You will have 1 minute to pause Power Point on slide 6 to reflect

Pause and Reflect

How do you think you would feel if this really happened to you, if you were?

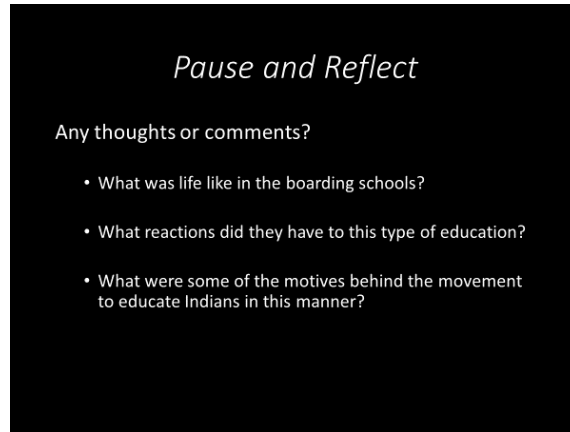

- Forbidden to speak the language from Earth and would have to learn the language that the aliens spoke;
- Have to study the history and culture of the aliens; and
- Have to practice the same religious beliefs, and ways of the aliens along with eating, dressing, and grooming just like the aliens.

After Activity Reflection

Have attendees brainstorm responses/reaction to this scenario. OPEN DISCUSSION
